Past Event Report

About Past Event:

The 2nd International Conference on Gynecology and Obstetrics, held from May 13-14, 2024, in Bangkok, Thailand and 2nd International Webinar on Gynecology and Obstetrics from May 23-24, 2024 as per the Bangkok Time Zone GMT+7 under the theme of “Global approach in Gynecology towards women’s healthcare” was a significant gathering of experts, researchers, and healthcare professionals dedicated to advancing the field of gynecology and obstetrics.

The event featured a series of keynote addresses, with Dr. Fernandi Moegni from the University of Indonesia, presented groundbreaking findings from his study, which investigated the efficacy of Platelet-Rich Plasma (PRP) in aiding the recovery of the levator ani muscle following childbirth and Dr. Christopher Jayne from Greater Houston Urogyn, provided a detailed overview of the C-clamp technique, emphasizing its precision and safety advantages over traditional methods. Throughout the conference, a diverse array of oral presentations addressed numerous topics in this field. A vibrant poster session allowed researchers to showcase their latest findings, fostering an environment of knowledge exchange and collaboration. Networking events further enhanced the opportunity for professionals to connect, share best practices, and explore potential partnerships. Overall, the conference was a resounding success, highlighting significant advancements and encouraging ongoing innovation in women’s health.
